

Art Wish List

Thank you in advance for your support! The art room is a HAPPENING place! The items below are needed and used in our art-making. Most of this you might even be throwing out.

Things you might recycle or throw away:

newspaper, plastic tablecloths baby food jars
styrofoam trays
found objects, cultural objects scrap wood pieces (remnants any shape/size up to around 6"x6") Recyclables (plastic containers, egg cartons) magazines: hunting/fishing/outdoors or sports

Used items or hand-me-downs, such as:

spotlights, book lights, directional lamps blender or hand mixer architectural materials (Legos, etc.)
books about art/artists, photography
"how-to-draw" books
looms for weavings (plastic or other) mirrors (small ones that stand) aprons (adult or child size) watercolor pans (full or empty) maps of city, state, country, world (ANY) art games paintbrushes (worn out, paint-dried, furniture painting type) t-shirts (any color, any size, stretchy-knit) clear plastic CD cases

Music Wish List

Thank you in advance for your support! We love our music times together! The music room is a place that is evolving.

My vision for the music room is to allow students opportunities to further develop their musical interests and skills through the use of technology.

If you are tech-savvy, please contact me.

I need help with this.

pamelapfinch@gmail.com

601-450-3333 (the school)

601-270-9870 (my cell)

Other items:

books about musical instruments instruments (for show&tell or for keeps) children's books about composers props used for teaching:
used nerf baseballs/softballs, etc
hula hoops
oversized scarves (flowy)
ribbon wands
masks
puppets
bingo tokens (about 1/2 inch size) pool noodles
paint stir sticks